

The view of the homepage nav will have these four options, the four options should remain static above the website at all times.

Audience: People who want a healthy meal or who always eat healthy. People who exercise sometimes or all the time. Could be vegan, vegetarian, or eat meat. People who want to eat well but have the food also taste good. Main focus being: anyone is welcome- don't want a healthy food restaurant that is intimidating.

Theme: greens + simple and effective/organized layout
